

March 6, 2020

Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in the Conference of Minority Transportation Officials (COMTO) Fort Lauderdale 2020 Scholarship Program. Enclosed you will find the Scholarship Application Package that you requested.

The scholarship awarded may be used for study related expenses such as tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, and transportation.

The scholarships being offered are a one-time award for students enrolled in school in 2020-2021 for:

- High School Scholarship(s) in the amount of $1000 given to selected South Florida minority high school seniors who have been accepted to an accredited college pursuing a transportation-related career.
- Technical/Vocational School Scholarship(s) in the amount of $750 given to selected minority students accepted to attend an accredited vocational, technical or trade school pursuing a transportation-related career.
- Transportation Industry College Scholarship(s) in the amount of $1,500 given to selected minority students currently attending an accredited college or university in the State of Florida pursuing a transportation-related career.
- Jack L. Stephens Graduate Scholarship(s) in the amount of $2,500 given to selected minority students with a career in transportation, attending an accredited college or university in the State of Florida, in pursuit of a Master's or Doctorate's degree.

Not all scholarship types will necessarily be awarded every year. Awards will be presented to applicants who receive the highest scoring during the evaluation process.

Applicants should ensure that they meet all qualifications before completing and submitting, an application package. A complete list of requirements can be found in the Eligibility Requirements section of the application package. The deadline for submitting a complete application package is Friday, June 5, 2020 at 5:00 PM (EST).

Once again, thank you for your interest in COMTO Fort Lauderdale Scholarship Program!

Sincerely,

COMTO Fort Lauderdale Scholarship Committee

COMTO FORT LAUDERDALE 2020 SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Program Information

COMTO Fort Lauderdale will award scholarships for the 2020-2021 academic year to students who express an interest in pursuing studies in a transportation-related field. The scholarship award may be used for study related expenses such as tuition and fees, room and board, books and supplies, and transportation at an accredited college/vocational-technical institution. All scholarships are being offered for one (1) school year.

High School Scholarship(s)

The High School Scholarship in the amount of $1,000 given to South Florida minority high school seniors who have been accepted to an accredited college/vocational-technical institution. Applicant must have a minimum grade point average of 2.50 on a 4.0 unweighted scale and demonstrate an interest in pursuing a transportation related career.

Technical/Vocational School Scholarship(s)

The Technical/Vocational School Scholarship in the amount of $750 given to selected minority students accepted to attend an accredited vocational, technical or trade secondary education school, pursuing a transportation-related career.

Transportation Industry College Scholarship(s)

Stephens Graduate Scholarship in the amount of $2,500 given to a minority student attending an accredited college or university in the State of Florida, in pursuit of a Master's or Doctorate's degree. Applicants must have a minimum grade point average of 2.50 on a 4.0 unweighted scale and a major in transportation related career.

Eligibility Requirements

Residency: All U.S. citizens or permanent residents who reside in Broward, Miami-Dade or Palm Beach County. Those that do not reside in these counties but are residents of Florida may be considered if no other eligible candidates qualify.

School Status: High School Scholarship – A minority high school senior student in a Broward, Miami-Dade or Palm Beach County school, in good standing.

College Scholarship – A minority student enrolled at a secondary education institution in the State of Florida, with a minimum of 12 accumulated credit hours.

Scholarship Application Process

Students interested in applying must submit a complete Scholarship Application and any other required forms to:

COMTO Fort Lauderdale Scholarship Committee
C/O SFRTA – Victor Garcia
801 NW 33rd Street
Pompano Beach, FL 33064

To facilitate the process, a checklist is included with the package. Students are responsible for submitting all required supporting material listed on the checklist. Incomplete application packages, or application and supporting material received after the deadline may not be considered. COMTO Fort Lauderdale will not contact students to advise of incomplete packages nor arrange for submission of missing material.

Scholarship Award Process

Selection of recipients for COMTO Fort Lauderdale Scholarships will be made by the COMTO Fort Lauderdale Scholarship Committee. Scoring will be based on Grade Point Average, Personal Essay, Career Goal Activities, Letters of Recommendations, School Citizenship and COMTO affiliation. Individual Interviews may be requested if deemed necessary. Recipients will be notified via email and phone.

Recipients of awards will be asked to submit a photo to be included in any announcement of award winners made by COMTO National or COMTO Fort Lauderdale. In addition, scholarship winners will be asked to participate in a Scholarship Awards Luncheon to be scheduled at a future date, or submit a video accepting their scholarship award.
